

Mrs. Neeta Dumre

Mrs. Neeta Dumre, an esteemed alumna of Pandit Ravishankar Shukla University, has had a distinguished career in Indian women's hockey. Representing India from 1988 to 1994, she participated in numerous prestigious international tournaments including the 12th Asian Games in Hiroshima, the Indira Gandhi International Gold Cup, the Women's Asia Cup, and various test series across Germany, Russia, Japan, and Australia.

Her consistent contributions to the Junior and Senior India teams demonstrate her excellence and dedication to the sport. Endorsed by the Indian Women's Hockey Federation, her achievements bring pride to both her alma mater and the nation.

With a commendable sports tenure endorsed by the Indian Women's Hockey Federation, Mrs. Neeta Dumre — an alumna of Pandit Ravishankar Shukla University — She has played at the highest levels of international competition, including the Indira Gandhi Gold Cup and the Women's Asia Cup.

Mrs. Neeta Dumre – International Hockey Career

Year	Event/Tournament	Location/Remarks
1988	Jr. India Team – Test Series with Germany & Russia	India
1988	Jr. India Team – Test Series with USSR	India
1988	Jr. India Team – World Cup Qualifying Tournament	Delhi
1989	Sr. India Team – Presidential Cup	Poland – Winners
1990	11th Asian Games	Beijing, China – Stand-by
1991	Jr. India Team – Test Matches	Japan
1991	Mayor Cup Quadrangle International Tournament	Pune
1991	4th Indira Gandhi International Gold Cup	Chandigarh
1992	2nd Internationals Cup	Singapore – IIIrd Place
1992	Test Series	Germany & Holland
1993	4th Inter-continental Cup	Philadelphia, USA
1993	3rd Women's Asia Cup	Hiroshima, Japan – IIIrd Place
1994	5th Indira Gandhi International Gold Cup	Amritsar – IInd Place
1994	Indo–Australia Test Matches	Delhi
1994	Test Matches	Ireland, England, Holland & Belgium
1994	Test Matches	Australia
1994	12th Asian Games	Hiroshima, Japan – Stand-by