Event Overview:

The event took place on 09 December 2024, from around 2:00 PM to 5:30 PM, under the leadership of the university's Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Sachchidanand Shukla. The chief guest was Prof. Tarun Kumar Thakur, a renowned Professor at Department of Environmental Science, Indira Gandhi National Tribal University, Amarkantak (M.P.) His speech captivated the audience, providing deep insights into the pressing issue of climate change. The program began with traditional rituals, including the lighting of the lamp, a Saraswati prayer, and the recitation of the university anthem. Following these, Dr. Shobhana Ramteke highlighted the significance of National Pollution Control Day Celebration and Prof. Tarun Kumar Thakur also spoke, emphasizing the diminishing number of government jobs and the increasing importance of entrepreneurship for the future.

About the Speaker

Prof. Tarun Kumar Thakur, Professor, Department of Environmental Science, Indira Gandhi National Tribal University, Amarkantak (M.P.), delivered a thought-provoking lecture. He focused on three essential aspects: Climate Change, Emission and Environment, Prof. Tarun Kumar Thakur seamlessly linked his research work to environmental issues, shedding light on the significance of scientific research in addressing environmental challenges. He discussed the sinking of Josimath, attributing it to unplanned construction and its adverse environmental impact. Prof. Tarun Kumar Thakur also spoke about the Sustainable Development Goal 2030, underlining its relevance in achieving a balanced and sustainable future.
