Details of Event

On the occasion of Swami Vivekananda's birth anniversary, a grand celebration of National Youth Day was organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) Cell and Institute Innovation Council of Pandit Ravishankar Shukla University. The program was conducted under the guidance of the Vice Chancellor of the University, Prof. Sachchidanand Shukla and the able leadership of the program coordinator Prof. L. S. Gajpal.

More than 200 volunteers from 20 colleges participated enthusiastically in the program. The inauguration started with garlanding and lighting of lamps on the statues of Swami Vivekananda, Mahatma Gandhi and Pandit Ravishankar Shukla. After this, the life, thoughts and inspirational messages of Swami Vivekananda were discussed.

Vice Chancellor Prof. Sachchidanand Shukla in his address inspired the youth to become self-reliant and actively contribute to social change. He said that the thoughts of Swami Vivekananda are still a source of inspiration for the youth and play the role of a guide in their lives. Rangoli, poster making and slogan writing competitions were organized under the program. The volunteers participated enthusiastically in these competitions and presented the thoughts of Swami Vivekananda in a creative manner. The main objective of National Youth Day is to inspire the youth towards self-reliance, awareness and social responsibility. This day provides an important opportunity to honor the energy, power and potential of the

Conclusion/Outcomes

Through vibrant competitions like Rangoli, Poster Making, and Slogan Writing, the youth creatively expressed the powerful thoughts of Swami Vivekananda. These activities not only showcased their talent but also deepened their understanding of self-reliance, service, and social responsibility. The event, enriched by motivational words from the Vice Chancellor, inspired students to adopt Swami Vivekananda's ideals in their lives and contribute meaningfully to society.
