About the Event

On March 8, 2025, the Institute Innovation Council (IIC) of Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, in collaboration with the Centre for Women's Studies, organized the "International Women's Day Celebration 2025" under the theme "Accelerate Action: All Girls, All Women." This event aimed to promote gender equality and empower women and girls within the university community and beyond. The celebration commenced with an inaugural address by Dr. Reeta Venugopal, Director CWS, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur who emphasized the importance of accelerating actions toward gender parity and the role of educational institutions in fostering an inclusive environment. A panel discussion featuring esteemed speakers from various fields addressed topics such as women's rights, equality, and empowerment. The panellists consist of Dr. Kavita Thakur, President IIC, PRSU, Raipur, Dr. Preeti Suresh, Dr. Nameeta Brahme shared insights on overcoming challenges and strategies to promote inclusivity. Interactive sessions were conducted focusing on skill development, leadership, and entrepreneurship for women. These sessions provided knowledge and encouraged participants to pursue their ambitions confidently. Students showcased cultural performances highlighting women's contributions to society, celebrating their achievements, and advocating for continued progress toward gender equality. The session concluded with certificate distribution to students for participation.
