About the Event:

On Monday, 11 November 2024, National Education day was celebrated in institute of Teacher Education, Pandit Ravi Shankar Shukla University, Raipur associated with SoS in Electronics & Photonics, Pandit Ravi Shankar Shukla University, Raipur. National Education Day is celebrated on November 11 every year in India to mark the birth anniversary of Respected Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the first Minister of Education in independent India. Maulana Azad played a pivotal role in the establishment of the educational framework of the newly independent nation. The day aims to recognize and honor his contributions to the development of education in India. A floral tribute was paid to Maulana Azad at the venue. A portrait of Maulana Azad was unveiled as a mark of respect to his contribution to the country's education system. A moment of silence was observed to honor his vision and sacrifice. The main objectives of the Celebration to honor Maulana Abul Kalam Azad's contribution to the educational framework of India and to encourage students, educators, and the community to reflect on the significance of education in shaping India's future. The day provided an opportunity for reflection on the progress made in education, as well as the challenges that remain. It served as a reminder of the need to ensure quality education for all. Through this celebration, we were reminded of the transformative power of education and the role each individual can play in contributing to the growth and development of our nation.
