Report on Ideathon 2k25 @ PRSU Raipur

IDEATHON-2K25 is an exciting idea competition designed to foster creativity, innovation, and entrepreneurial spirit among students. Launched on 26th January 2025, this initiative encouraged participants to think critically and propose impactful solutions across nine thematic areas aligned with pressing societal and technological challenges.

IDEATHON-2K25 marks the second successful edition of the university's flagship idea competition, building on the overwhelming response and impactful outcomes of its inaugural edition. Organized by the Innovation & Incubation Centre at Pandit Ravishankar Shukla University (PRSU), Raipur, the event serves as a dynamic platform to channel students' creativity, critical thinking, and entrepreneurial potential toward solving real-world challenges.

Launched on 26th January 2025, this edition of IDEATHON-2K25 continues its mission to inspire young minds by inviting innovative and implementable ideas across nine diverse thematic areas. These themes are carefully curated to align with global sustainability goals and regional development priorities, ensuring relevance and practical application.

IDEATHON-2K24 saw enthusiastic participation from students across disciplines, reflecting the growing culture of innovation at PRSU. The competition not only encouraged ideation but also emphasized interdisciplinary collaboration, problem-solving, and translating research into action. A total of 42 ideas were submitted, showcasing a broad spectrum of creativity, from environmental sustainability and healthcare to automation and innovative solutions.

This ongoing initiative demonstrates PRSU's commitment to fostering a thriving innovation ecosystem and promoting a startup culture among students through experiential learning and real-world engagement.

Thematic Areas:

- Renewable Energy Technology
- Water Resource Technology & Management
- Solid Waste Management
- Wasteland Management
- Agriculture Technology & Management
- Health Care & Elderly Care
- Automation, Innovation & Supply Chain Management

Conclusion:

IDEATHON-2K25 stands as a testament to PRSU's unwavering commitment to nurturing innovation, creativity, and entrepreneurial spirit among students. By providing a structured platform for ideation and problem-solving, the competition bridges the gap between academic knowledge and real-world application. With its focus on sustainable development, regional priorities, and futuristic technologies, IDEATHON-2K25 not only empowers students to think beyond boundaries but also instills in them the confidence to transform their ideas into impactful solutions. As PRSU continues to build a vibrant culture of innovation, IDEATHON-2K25 marks another milestone in shaping tomorrow's leaders, innovators, and change-makers.
