About the Event

On 23rd and 25th August, 2025, Institute Innovation Council (IIC), Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur, in collaboration with the Innovation & Incubation Centre, S.o.S. in Electronics & Photonics and the Institute of Renewable Energy Technology and Management, organized a two days Event titled "Pitch-a-thon 2025: Think. Pitch. Win!" under the supervision of Dr. Kavita Thakur, Professor & Head, S.o.S. in Electronics & Photonics. The event aimed to promote entrepreneurial spirit, nurture innovative ideas, and provide a platform for students and researchers to pitch their creative solutions before experts.

The venue of the program was SOS Electronics Hall. The program was conducted under the leadership of the Vice Chancellor of the University, Dr. Sachchidanand Shukla. The program was started first with Dwipa Prajwal and Saraswati Vandana and Kul Geet. The program was successfully conducted by Miss. Neha Dewangan, Faculty, S.o.S. in Electronics & Photonics and Mrs. Anjali Deshpande, Institute of Renewable Energy Technology and Management.

Day 1: 23rd August 2025

The first day commenced with an inaugural session graced by dignitaries, faculty members, and participants. The theme "Think. Pitch. Win!" was introduced, emphasizing the importance of critical thinking, innovative idea development, and effective pitching skills. The session includes expert talks on innovation, entrepreneurship, and start-up culture and on workshops on effective presentation and pitching techniques. This interactive environment encouraged participants to sharpen their problem-solving approaches and align their ideas with real-world challenges. Pitch presentations were started sequentially as per the list.

Day 2: 25th August 2025

There is pitch presentations in second day also. Selected teams and individuals showcased their innovative ideas in front of an esteemed panel of judges comprising faculty members, industry experts, and mentors. Innovative solutions in technology, sustainability, renewable energy, and digital innovation were presented. Judging criteria was based on creativity, feasibility, impact, and pitching skills. Constructive feedback provided to participants for further improvement.

Conclusion/Outcomes

The outcome and benefits of the two-day event Pitch-a-thon 2025: Think. Pitch. Win! were highly impactful, as it not only enhanced the entrepreneurial mindset and pitching skills of the participants but also provided them with valuable exposure to expert guidance, mentorship, and networking opportunities. The event fostered a vibrant culture of innovation and problem-solving within the university, encouraging students and researchers to think creatively and address real-world challenges. Moreover, it facilitated the identification of several promising ideas with strong potential for further incubation and development, thereby contributing to the growth of an entrepreneurial ecosystem in the institution.
