However, Force Majeure shall not include

Any event, which is caused by the negligence or intentional action of a party or its agents or employees, nor

Any event, which a diligent party could reasonably have been expected to both (a) take into account at the time of the conclusion of this Agreement (b) avoid or overcome in the carrying out of its obligations hereunder.

Further, force majeure shall not include insufficiency of funds of failure to make and payment required hereunder.

This failure of party to fulfill any of its obligations hereunder shall not be considered to be a breach of, or default under, this contract is so far as such inability arises from an event of force majeure, provided that the party affected by such an event has taken all reasonable precautions, due care and reasonable alternative measures, all with the objective of carrying out the terms and conditions of this agreement.

A party affected by an event of Force Majeure shall take all reasonable measure to remove such party's inability to fulfill its obligations hereunder with a minimum of delay.

A party affected by an event of Force majeure shall notify the other party of such event as soon as possible, and in any event, not later than ten days following the occurrence of such event and shall similarly give notice of the restoration of normal conditions as soon as possible.

The parties shall take all reasonable measures to minimize the consequence of any event of Force Majeure.

Any period within which a party shall, pursuant to this Agreement, complete any action or task, shall be extended for a period equal to time during which such party was unable to perform such action as a result of Force Majeure:

Amendments to the Agreement

Should the circumstances arise which call for amendments to this agreement, these may be made by mutual consent given in writing. Proposals in this regard from one party shall be given due consideration by the other party.
